

The Women's Connection, a neighborhood center in Cincinnati, Ohio, has been committed to strengthening families in the Price Hill community since its opening date in May 1997. With a mission that has been in practice for thirteen years, our center focuses on providing support for change by educating, empowering, and enriching women, children and families.

Recognized as a place of hope, The Women's Connection connects women and families to community resources, provides educational and personal growth programs specific to the needs of the community, and initiates and promotes collaborative events and services within the community.
